GUEST SPEAKERS

Jonathan Fraser Light, Attorney LightGabler LLP

With over thirty years of experience, Jon offers employment counsel and training programs to companies of all sizes to reduce liability and protect against lawsuits. Jon enjoys a stellar and long-standing reputation as a skilled trial attorney. His employment case notes as sole or lead trial attorney include a variety of successful matters.

Beyond frequently lecturing to business groups and civic organizations on employment issues, Jon serves the community where he lives and works as a current or former board member of many organizations. He is the author of the nationally acclaimed and award-winning book, The Cultural Encyclopedia of Baseball, the Second Edition of which was published in 2005.

Jon is a 1981 graduate of the UCLA School of Law, where he was a member of the Law Review. He graduated magna cum laude in history from UCLA in 1978, and is a 1986 graduate of the National Institute for Trial Advocacy.

Colin Havert, Vice President & General Manager Individual Business Anthem Blue Cross

Colin has worked with multiple individual and small group carriers in a variety of positions in his 18+ years in the industry, the last 6 years with Anthem Blue Cross. The positions he has filled include account management and sales positions along with management responsibilities including Director of Account Management, Director of Sales and Director of General Agent Sales, and Regional Vice President, California Individual and Small Group Sales.

Colin brought this experience and extensive knowledge into his current role overseeing California's individual segment. In January of 2014, Colin was appointed to the position of Vice President and General Manager, Individual Business.

Colin earned his Bachelor's degree in Business Economics from the University of California at Santa Barbara.
